Essex Veterans – O40A team ICL

After the postponement of the ICC at Swindon due the previous weekend, it was good to get the team back on court again.

The Essex team ran out comfortable winners by 11 games to 1.

Of the 8 level doubles only 1 game went to 3 sets, with Lesley & Kit prevailing after losing a tight 1st set. Donna & Amanda, after an early wobble in their first game, weren't seriously tested again.

Simon & Dave and Felix & Trevor both recorded 2 comfortable wins, so the match was already won before the mixed. Unfortunately a potential white-wash of the opposition came to an abrupt end as Felix & Kit lost in straight sets, nearly followed by Lesley & Dave, who were taken to 3 sets. Amanda & Trevor and Donna & Simon both won in more straightforward fashion.

And so on to the next game, which is likely to be much more of a challenge, which is Bucks away at Milton Keynes College on Sun 14th Feb
