Essex Veterans – O40A team ICL

Having 6 of the 8 nominated team available made for a much improved performance against Bucks, having only drawn and lost the 2 games against them last season. After the level doubles Essex had taken an unassailable 7-1 lead, only losing 1 ladies doubles game to both sets in setting, and the men won all 4 dropping only 1 set in the process.

Simon Gilhooly made his debut and partnered Dave Wood, and they breezed through their 2 games. Trevor Rogers and Andy Bailey made hard work of 1 game, but won comfortably enough in the 3rd end.

Viv Gillard & Amanda Austin dropped their first game, but made amends with their second. Donna Tubb partnered by Allison Pearson won both their games without ever looking in trouble.

The spirit seemed knocked out of the Bucks team and the mixed doubles all went to Essex in straight sets, resulting in a comprehensive 11-1 win.

This Saturday is expected to be a much sterner challenge as the team travel to Herts for what is normally the division deciding game, but do so buoyed by a great start to the season.
