U15 Team Managers Report - Simon Gauntley

Despite valiant, determined efforts from the entire team, our U15 team suffered its first defeat of the season, yesterday, against favourites, Hampshire.

The final score was 8-12 - an extremely close encounter - 3 tight matches going our way would have secured the victory.

Both Chris (Dakin) and myself (and all the parents watching) were enthralled with the match and the effort put in by every team member.

Some players may feel they could have done better - but that is not the case - each should be proud of their effort and achievement - what we had to do yesterday was the equivalent of winning away to Manchester United!

Remember - we are still in the finals!
